

Lace

Ottoman

Product by Ligne Roset

With Lace, and as in each of his previous projects, Benjamin Graindorge, gives the common a very original and amazing personality. Shallow and slightly narrower at the base, this ottoman looks very light to the eye. Its personality then stems from the string which is woven through it to give it that elegant look. He who knows Japan well, without any doubt was inspired by the distinctive Japanese art of shibari... In terms of space design, be sure to arrange several Lace ottomans together.
