Product by Ligne Roset

The famous Nomade created in 1996 has been revisited and made more modern. If the aesthetic inspiration of Nomade comes from North African culture, Nomade 2 is intended to be much more urban. Nomade is a sofa “with lots of cushions and bolsters” with a seat cushion conceived to look like a traditional mattress with edge and dimples. The principal changes made for Nomade 2 are a thin piping and a discreet stitching on the seat cushion and a comb stitching on the back cushions. Structures are maintained identical but the mattress padding gets lighter with fine piping, dimples become discrete prints, and back cushions clearly express the refinement of their seam finish. Offered in a multitude of fabrics and colors.
